MINES AND MINING STOCKS

BROKERS' GOSSIP

Southwestern Miami. Southwestern Miami has optioned upon very favorable terms the provpectors group of claims in the Globe Mining district at one time under option to the Guzgenheims for $250,000. The option calls for no money down and what money is put in is to be applied on development. The first payment is due March 1, 1913, Arrange ments have been made to start drilling within the next ten days.

A wire received from Those says that the No. 8 hule on S. W. Micani, which is located about 290 feet south of the No. 2 hole, where better than 150 feet of commercial ere was developed, haencountered red sludge after passing through the gray sludge, The red cladge carries some native copper unchaicelite. The finding of native conper is entirely new for this district. A evised estimate developed and probable dro developed, as shown to Nos. I, 2, 2 and 5 ficles, totals 2,411,000 tons. averaging 1.10 per cent.

Isle Royale-Superior Railroad.

The work of building the line of callroad connecting the Superior mine with the Isle Royale Railroad now wil proceed expeditiously. Material ha arrived and permission has been granted by Portage township for the crossing of reads. A spur will also be built to bele Royale's new No. 7 shaft which is now ainking through over burden so feet thick. The line to Superfor is being constructed so that Superior rock can be handled at the Alfonez-Centennial zulli instead of a the old Atlantic mill, where it is going at present. The change will cut the milling cost in two:

East Butte.

Developments on the Live-foot leset of the East Butte mine continue faverable and it is reported that the eight feet of ore averaging better than 10 per cent copper has widered out in drifting to a much greater extenthan was anticipated. With this or hody and those which have been developed on the 800 and 1,000-foot levels the East Butte has an enormoutonnage of first-class ore in sight The East Butte is attracting more attention today than ever before and iswere abandened five years ugo.

QUESTIONED BY POLICE.

Jack Johnson is Asked Regarding

Whereabouts of Girl. Chicago, Oct 17 -- The police today questioned lack Johnson, the champion puglitst, regarding the whereabouts of Lucie Cameron, aged 19 11% for whom her mother in Minneapoli asked a search. The girl was employed as cashier in Johnson's onfe The positist said he knets where the girl was located; but refused to give 4% her address, pleading the girl was unxious to avoid further notoriory be cause of the recent unicide of his wife 2% of whom Miss Cameron was a comearned bothing to tend to show Johnson was to blame in any way for the girl's disappearance.

GIVE REALITY TO THE CHILD

Writers of the Nineteenth Century Responsible for Valuable Addition to Literature.

Children were only found yesterday. Before the nineteenth century the child mind and the child heart were not supposed to have enough in them to interest the majestic adult. It is true that you find a delightful baby in Homer; that in Vergil there is the prettiest glimpse of a little girl, and up and down in the classics you may meet half a dozen other pleasant shadows of children. But they are only shadows, only at the most charming pictures. They give you as much as if they were painting or sculpturefor in children's bodies art has always had interest enough-only what child looks like, the pretty weakness, the instinct for play, the native gesture and movement. Not till the "return to nature," not till the spirit of romance moved on the waters at the end of the eighteenth century, do you find poets beginning to tell of the thought and faith in a child's mind. the mysteries of the child's heart, the fancies that are dreams and the fancies that are visions. You may think that they have gone too far, that they into childhood the laborious philosophizing and sometimes the labored sentimentality of the adult. But no one who loves children will deny that the best of the children in nine teenth century books have a far richer reality, a far fuller life than any tha were born in earlier words, And some of the best are in Dickens.

PRIVATE WIRE.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 17.-Transactions in local coppers were smaller today than they have been for several weeks. Everyone seemed to be waiting for Amalgamated dividend. The advance to a 6 per cent basis however, seems to have been discounted by recent advance and there was pienty of profit-taking as soon as the announcement was made We think future of Amalgamated however, is very favorable and after the present profit taking is out of the way we expect to see another sharp advance. East Butte although quiet matitained its strength and will be one of the leaders in any general advance. Floor traders tried to bid up North Rutte near the close but found stock offered around 35. Altogether there is nothing in the situation to cause any selling of the coppers and with present increasing confidence we expect to see gradually improving market for all classes of coppers.-Foster,
